Week 10 - Term 3

IMPORTANT DATES AND INFORMATION

- Year 5/6 Assembly – Our Year 5/6 will present their Class Assembly this Friday at 2.20pm in the Hall. All are welcome to attend- it promises to be very entertaining!
- Assessment Books – On Friday, your child should bring home their Assessment Book, which will contain some recent assessments that they have completed in class. Please look through it with your child over the holidays, write an encouraging comment in the space provided and then return these books to school at the beginning of Term 4.
- School Disco/Parent Social Night- Please save the date for this- it's the first Friday night of Term 4, 16th October. More details to come!
- Principal Appointment Process– The position of Principal for 2021 and beyond has now been advertised and I am sure many applications will be received. An announcement to the community can be expected towards the end of October.
- Happy Holidays- We wish all of our students and families a safe and happy holiday break! I hope you are able to find some time to do those things that you enjoy doing together and return to school well-rested for a busy Term 4!
