Wednesday 4th November 2020
Week 4 - Term 4

IMPORTANT DATES AND INFORMATION

- First Communion – this Sunday, 8th November at 10.30am, several of our students (Marcus, Shelby, Sarah, Rose and Mia) will receive the Sacrament of First Communion. Please continue to pray for them
- Author Workshop @ PDHS – Tomorrow, our students from Years 1-6 will enjoy a workshop with successful author/illustrator Josh Langley at PDHS. I am sure he will inspire our children with his talents and positive message.
- NAIDOC Week- Next week is NAIDOC Week (rescheduled from July due to COVID-19). This is a national event where Australia celebrates indigenous culture. Our students will enjoy a couple of hours of short, rotational activities celebrating this important cultural event.
- Remembrance Day– Next Wednesday is Remembrance Day. We hope to again take our senior students to the local town service to pay our respects at 11.00am. I encourage all community members to join us if you can.

Happy Birthday to:
Emilia Della Franca – Today
4th November

Canteen Roster:

Tuesday 10th November:
Pip Ellis

Tuesday 17th November:
Joo Kim Ebsary &
Joanne Slack-Smith

Book Week 2020

What an awesome Book Week! Thank you to Mrs Moynihan for all her hard work in making the library exciting and inviting. The students enjoyed looking at the books and taking part in the competitions. Congratulations to all the competition winners. The winners of the raffle were:

- 1st prize – Jayden
- 2nd prize – Shelby
- 3rd prize – Seb

The raffle and pencil pull competitions raised $149.00 which will be directed to library purchases – thank you to all those who took part.

This year, total sales netted $346.50 in rewards that we are able to purchase books for the library – so thank you to those who purchased items from the Book Fair.

Thank you to all those parents and students who made some amazing costumes for our dress up day on Tuesday. It was wonderful to see the varied ideas of students favourite book characters – well done!
